Introducing GOJoven Belize's New Bulletin

GoJoven Belize is taking a new initiative to furnish their partners with a monthly bulletin to orient and keep them in on the loop of their work of promoting and supporting the development of young leaders in the country.

GOJoven offers subscriptions to their bulletin that is to be published at the end of every month. The publication is in the form of an e-bulletin, and for your convenience printed versions can also be issued.

Find out how you can subscribe in the "How to Subscribe to this Bulletin" section on page #4

GoJoven Fellows to Attend the 3rd Global Conference: Women Deliver 2013 continued...

WOMEN DELIVER 2013

WHO: Thousands of participants from around the world, including government leaders, policymakers, healthcare professionals, NGO representatives, corporate leaders, and global media outlets.

WHAT: The largest global event of the decade to focus on the health and empowerment of girls and women.

WHERE: Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

WHEN: 28 – 30 May 2013

WHY?: Because the most valuable investment is one in girls and women. The Women Deliver 2013 conference is the most important date in the international population and development calendar. With the 2015 Millennium Development Goal deadline rapidly approaching, the time is now to deliver for girls and women. Women Deliver 2013 will serve as a global platform for ensuring that the health and rights of girls and women remain top priorities now, and for decades to come.

More than 120 concurrent sessions, high-level plenaries, skills-building workshops, and ministerial and parliamentarian forums will inspire and inform your work to build a better world for girls and women.

GoJoven Belize Alumni Association & the GOJoven Belize Program

The GoJoven Belize Alumni Association takes great pride in its principal program "GOJoven Belize" that has been serving Belize in advancing adolescent sexual and reproductive health through strengthening local young leaders.

GOJoven - Fellowship Program

The Youth Leadership in Sexual and Reproductive Health Program (GOJoven) started in 2004, developing the leadership capacity of young professionals in adolescent sexual and reproductive health (ASRH) in Belize, Guatemala, Honduras, and Quintana Roo, Mexico. The program is implemented by the Public Health Institute (PHI) with primary funding from the Summit Foundation and additional funding from The World Bank.

GoJoven Belize Alumni Association & the GOJoven Belize Program

In 2011, PHI launched the GOJoven Belize Program as a 2-year English-language pilot initiative to develop the vision, commitment, and leadership capacity of young leaders in the six districts of Belize. In the interest of permanently continuing the GOJoven Belize Program, interested alumni of the program took the initiative to form a local Non-Profit NGO--"GOJoven Belize Alumni Association" (GOBelize) that would manage and continue to implement the program as a fundamental part of its mandate.

The mission of GOJoven Belize Alumni Association aims at committing itself to contribute to the increase in knowledge of sexual reproductive health, enhance leadership skills and promote environmental consciousness in Belizean youth in order to stimulate positive behavior change communication. GoBelize envisions itself to be a sustainable, leading and proactive organization for the
